Area brought under afforestation

941. MISS MABEL REBELLO:
SHRI SURESH KALMADI:

Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) what were the areas brought under afforestation, per year, by the Central and State Governments and their organisations during the period from 1st April, 1970 to 31st March, 1999 and what was the annual Government expenditure on such afforestation programmes;

(b) what were the areas brought under afforestation, per year, by various private firms during that period;

(c) what would be the fate of various private firms undertaking commercialisation of forest tree plantations; and

(d) whether Government would permit such private firms to cut trees planted by them in the face of the recent Supreme Court decision against felling of trees and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI BABU LAL MARANDI): (a) Areas brought under afforestation and expenditure incurred thereon during the Fourth to Eighth Plan periods are given in the Statement (See below). Areas afforested during the first two years of the Ninth Plan, and outlay for the forestry sector for the Ninth Plan Period approved to the States by the Planning Commission is also given in the Statement. (See below)

(b) No survey has been carried out to determine the areas brought under afforestation, year-wise, by private firms during the period 1st April 1970 to 31st March 1999.

(c) and (d) Permission for felling of trees in respect of plantations done on non-forest areas is not required under the Forest Conservation Act, 1980. The Supreme Court has not given any decision against felling of trees in plantations carried out by private firms.

Statement

Areas brought under afforestation and expenditure incurred thereon during the Fourth to Eighth Plan periods, and areas afforested during the first two years of the Ninth Plan, and outlay for the forestry sector for the Ninth Plan Period approved to the States by the Planning Commission.
